Held in the Auditorium and Largely Attended.

The graduating exercises of the eighth grade of the training school were held yesterday forenoon in the normal auditorium and were largely attended. Hon. Kirke T. Moore delivered a very pleasing and instructive address and President Matthews in presenting the diplomas called at-

SUNDAY HOURS

FURTHER RESTRICTED

The policy of the postoffice department is to eliminate as much as possible the work of the office forces on Sunday and holidays. Following out this policy, Postmaster Mullen a short time ago relieved the rural carriers from any further service at the postoffice on Sundays. Rural patrons are now receiving their mail Sundays and holidays through the general delivery window and in this connection Postmaster Mullen has just posted the following self-explanatory notice:

"The general delivery window hereafter on Sundays and holidays will be open between the hours of 8:20 and 8:50. It is our policy to hand out only 'important' mail to the rural delivery patrons through the general delivery window on Sunday and holidays and if this privilege is abused, it will result in the entire suspension of the rural service on Sundays and holidays excepting to those having boxes."

Now is the time to get rid of your

RASH SO BAD BABY
CAME NEAR DYING

Head Broke Out. Spread to Arms, Legs and Entire Body. Itched So He Would Scratch Until Blood Ran.
One Box of Cuticura Ointment and Nearly One Cake of Cuticura Soap Cured Him. Has Had No Return.

"When my boy was about three months old, his head broke out with a rash which was very itchy and ran a watery fluid. We tried everything we could but he got worse all the time, till it spread to his arms, legs and then to his entire body. He got so bad that he came near dying. The rash would itch so that he would scratch till the blood ran, and a thin yellowish stuff would be all over his pillow in the morning. I had to put mittens on his hands to prevent him tearing his skin. He was so weak and run down that he took fainting spells as if he were dying.
He was almost a skeleton and his little hands were thin like claws.

"He was bad about eight months when we tried Cuticura Remedies. I had not laid him down in his cradle in the daytime for a long while. I washed him with Cuticura Soap and put on one application of Cuticura Ointment and he was so soothed that he could sleep.
You don't know how glad I was to feel better.
It took one box of Cuticura Ointment and pretty near one cake of Cuticura Soap to cure him. I think our boy would have died but for the Cuticura Remedies and I shall always remain a firm friend of them. He was cured more than twenty years ago, and there has been no return of the trouble. I shall be glad to have you publish this true statement of his cure." (Signed) Mrs. M. C. Maitland, Jasper, Ontario, May 27, 1910.

Cuticura Remedies afford the most economical treatment for affections of the skin and scalp. A cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment are often sufficient.
Sold everywhere. Potter Drug & Chem.
Corp., sole props., 120 Columbus Ave., Boston.
Mailed free, samples of Cuticura Soap and Ointment, with 32-p. book on skin treatment.

THE RYDER STORE

IS BROKEN INTO

A Quantity of Guns and Some Cash is Missing.

Sometimes during Thursday night burglars entered the H. W. Ryder hardware store and got away with the contents of the cash drawer and quite a quantity of valuable guns.
Whoever did the work didn't bother to go through a door or window but went through the south side of the building, prying a couple of boards off and gaining an entrance in that wise.

The gun case is always kept locked.
After getting inside, the party or parties used an axe and opened the gun case. From it is missing a couple of shotguns, both double barreled and 12 gauge, one an L. C. Smith, the other an Ithaca, both valuable guns. Strange to say though, in the same case and overlooked were a couple other shotguns of greater value. Among other things missing is one 38 S&W automatic revolver, one 25 Colts automatic, a 38 Smith and Wesson, nickel and pearl handled and about five dollars in change from the cash drawer.
Of course there may be still other things gone that as yet have not been missed.

Cecil Sherwin slept in the rear of the building outside in the lumber yard but so quietly was the work inside performed he knew nothing of it until yesterday morning. Suspicion is directed at no one in particular and the matter is now in the hands of the officers.

A GENERAL INVITATION.

A general invitation is extended by the faculty and board of the normal school to the public at large to be present at the various exercises incident to commencement week. From time to time, detailed announcement of the various programs of the week will be made in these columns. The point just now is that every one is invited to be present. All exercises of the week will be held in the normal auditorium and will commence at 8:30. The first event of the week will be the baccalaureate address next Sunday evening, June 4th.
